Want to work on your RELATIONSHIP?

The Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Department of Counseling and Educational Psychology is seeking volunteers to take part in a study of COUPLES COUNSELING INTERVENTIONS.

Volunteers will take part in a preliminary, randomized trial of group and individual counseling for couples. The purpose of this study is to analyze the effectiveness of group and individual counseling for couples. Sessions will be provided by graduate level counseling students, under the supervision of faculty. Participants will be randomly assigned to group sessions or individual sessions. Sessions will take place via telehealth on Webex.

STUDY PARTICIPATION WILL INVOLVE:
- Completing an initial interview that will provide more information about the study and make sure you meet participation criteria.
- Completing 2 sessions a week for 5 weeks via Webex.
- Completing assessments at the beginning, at the middle, at the end of counseling, and three weeks after the counseling is over.

QUALIFICATIONS & BENEFITS
- Participants must be age 18 or older and must have a device (phone, tablet, computer) that they can use to log into webex software.
- Participants must speak English and wish to improve their relationship.
- Both members of the couple must attend counseling together.
- Each time couples complete these assessments, each member of the couple will receive a $25 gift card.
